PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Rested and Ready?

As we step into a new term filled with opportunities, challenges, and a flurry of extracurricular activities and, for many grades, examinations, it's worth pausing to reflect on the gift we've just been given: the recent school holiday. More than just a break in the calendar, I am hopeful that the holiday offered a chance to rest, reconnect, and realign.

In the busyness of the school year, it's easy for pupils, staff, and parents to run on empty. The holidays provided a vital window to slow down, recharge physically and mentally, and step away from the usual routine. Sleep was reclaimed, stress levels reduced, and the constant noise of "what's next?" gave way to moments of quiet and peace. This rest is not a luxury but a necessity that fuels the ability to perform at our best when it matters most.

Rest does not always take away the challenges, but it does prepare us to meet them with strength and clarity. In this sense, the holiday has been more than a pause. It has been a platform for what comes next. This term brings an important stretch of the academic year, filled with extracurricular commitments and the pressure of examinations. It is a time that calls for energy, focus, and resilience. I hope the girls return not only well rested but also ready to participate fully, to manage their time wisely, and to give their best in all areas of school life.

As we move forward, I encourage our students to continue building rest and reflection into their routines. Balance is key to lasting success. Whether through quiet moments, healthy sleep habits, or regular check-ins with family and mentors, creating space for rest will help them finish this term strong in heart, mind, and spirit.

FAITH AND FLOURISH

As we kick off a brand-new term, there's an undeniable buzz around our school. The hallways are filled with laughter again, and I can't help but see Jesus in every young girl and staff member. It's such a beautiful reminder, especially as we approach the end of our Lenten season. During this time, we've made space for God in our lives through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. And now, as Lent comes to a close, we are met with the incredible hope of the Resurrection.

The Resurrection calls us to action! As Pope Francis reminds us, "To live the Resurrection is to be light for the world and salt of the earth." This Easter season, let's remember: the tomb is empty, but our hearts are full! Christ is alive—and He calls us to live as people of light, love, and joy.

St. Paul says in his letter to the Romans, "If we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly also be united with him in a resurrection like his." (Romans 6:5).

May this Easter inspire us to live as women and men of the Resurrection, embracing the new life Christ offers to each of us.

May His resurrection fill us with unshakable hope and boundless love. ❤️

Wishing you all a beautiful and blessed Easter
And a happy and successful Term 2

Always in my prayers

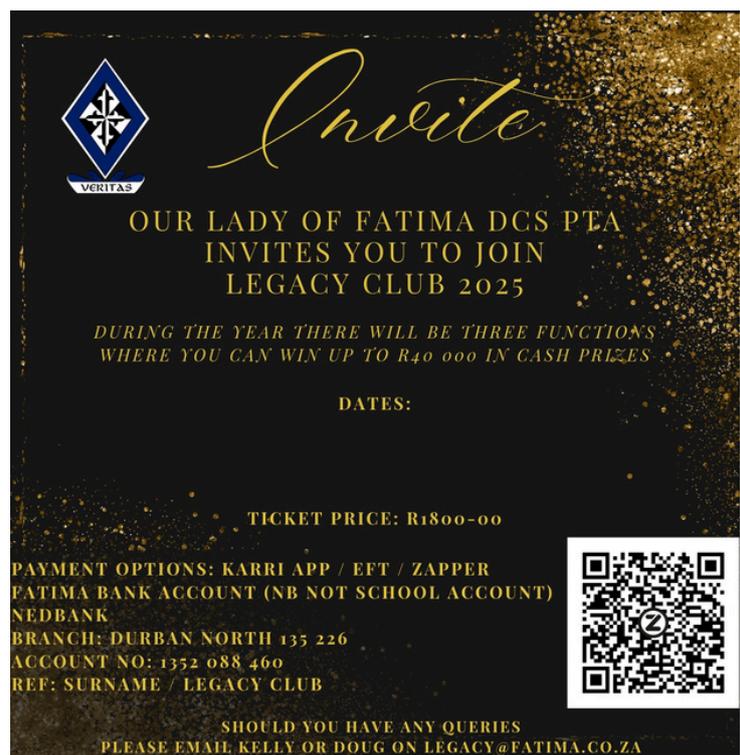

Miss T. Nanak
